Joe presents as a relaxed but disciplined head trader, describing all his trade set ups well in advance. Trades (entries, targets, stops) are first discussed, verbally announced and then shown on the charts in real time, so there is an accurate and instant record of all trades and P/L. And get this all you chatterboxes out there: Trader Program members are granted mic privileges! This is a rarest of rare features of the 811 rooms I have seen. His strategies are executed as target shots, lock and trail or scale out and are applicable to all futures. He offers a Shadow Program (for those who just want to watch and shadow the trades in real time) and more advanced Trader and Mentor Programs (for those who want an education). While I carefully examined the posted track record of 9 months of ES trades, I observed several months of trades across all 4 indices and each of these individually met or exceed a net P/L > $50k/yr. It is indeed truthful and transparent trading and as shown.
